

Client	RvA	When	Explanation
			During the pre-assessment it is established whether the documented system meets the requirements for a accreditation. This avoids starting an assessment project when essential elements are missing. The results of the pre-assessment and the next steps in the process are discussed with the client in an explanatory review meeting. The client receives an assessment specification, which contains an estimate of the number of hours required for the pre-assessment. The pre-assessment only starts when the advance payment invoice has been paid. After the pre-assessment the client receives a final invoice based on the actual number of hours spent. The conclusions from the pre-assessment can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. ready for initial assessment; b. not ready for initial assessment: a follow-up pre-assessment is conducted; c. not ready for initial assessment: advice is to withdraw the application. The conclusions from the follow-up pre-assessment can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. ready for initial assessment; b. not ready for initial assessment: advice is to withdraw the application; c. not ready for initial assessment: the accreditation decision is negative. The client receives an invoice for the pre-assessment based on the actual number of hours spent.

No rights can be derived from this chart. The precise rules are laid down in the policy rules.