

Client	RvA	When	Explanation
	 <pre> graph TD     A[Reassessment] --&gt; B[Take decision]     B --&gt; C[Send final report]     C --&gt; D[Send decision and accreditation documents]     D --&gt; E[Surveillance assessment]             </pre>		The Accreditation Committee advises the Chief Executive about continuation of the accreditation. He takes a decision on the basis of this advice. There is the possibility of suspension if an accredited body fails to meet the accreditation requirements The client receives the final report, parts A and B. The client receives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- a decision letter;</li> <li>- a Declaration of Accreditation (valid for four years);</li> <li>- the accreditation scope (valid for four years).</li> </ul>

No rights can be derived from this chart. The precise rules are laid down in the policy rules.